

Major Civil War Exhibit

Lehigh Valley Heritage Museum
Allentown, Pennsylvania

Opening September 26, 2009 – July 11, 2010

Opening Day appearance by Civil War actor “Patrick Falci” from the movies, Gettysburg & Gods and Generals

► Civil War Encampment on Opening Weekend ◀

The Civil War: America at the Crossroads

Rarely Displayed Civil War Artifacts Include:

- Medal of Honor awarded to Corporal Ignatz Gresser for gallantry at the Battle of Antietam
- Gold Presentation Sword of Colonel Tilghman Good – 47th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers
- Colonel Marcus Reno’s Field Chest including Colt Revolver used at Little Big Horn
- 76th Pennsylvania Keystone Zouave Uniform of Private Robert Ford
- Gown worn by actress Jeannie Gourlay at Ford’s Theatre on night of Lincoln’s assassination
- Major Display of Abraham Lincoln Statuary, Framed Images, and Medallic Art
- And much more . . .

Major Artifacts provided by:

- Lehigh Valley Heritage Museum
Allentown, Pennsylvania
- The National Civil War Museum
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania
- Ford’s Theatre National Historic Site
Washington, D.C.
- Pike County Historical Society
Milford, Pennsylvania
- Prominent Private Collections

Admission

Members: FREE

Non-members: $6.00 adults, $3.00 children

Civil War Re-enactors in uniform receive FREE Admission &
One FREE Soda on Opening Day

Lehigh Valley Heritage Museum

432 West Walnut Street

Allentown, PA 18102

610.435.1074

www.lchs.museum

Medal of Honor Recipient
Corporal Ignatz Gresser
Company D, 128th Pennsylvania Infantry